

MARTIN JAN STRANSKY, M.D., F.A.C.P.

Address: USA: 1-B Heritage Circle, Southbury CT, Tel (203) 592-7470
Czech Republic: Národní 11, Prague 1, 110 00
Tel/fax: (+420) 222 075 101/ 224 215 059
E-mail: stransky@mjs.narodni.cz

Date of birth: October 30, 1956. Dual citizenship: USA and Czech Republic.

Education: 1986-89 Resident and Chief resident, Dept. of Neurology,
Albany Medical Center, Albany, N.Y.

1986-88 Intern and Resident, Dept. of Medicine,
Coney Island Hospital (SUNY), Brooklyn, N.Y.

1985 Neurological elective, Guy's Hosp. and
The National Neurological Institute, London.

1983 Doctor of Medicine,
St. George's University School of Medicine, Grenada, W.I.

1978 Bachelor of Arts in Art History, Columbia University, New York, N.Y.

Professional certifications and memberships:

Board Certification in Neurology,
American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology.

Board Certification, American Board of Internal Medicine.

Fellow, American College of Physicians.

Member, American Academy of Neurology.

Approbation in Medicine, Member, Czech Medical Doctor's Union.

Board Certification and Certificate of Specialized Training in Neurology, Czech Republic.

Current medical activities, USA:

Assistant Clinical Professor, Dept. of Neurology,
Yale University School of Medicine.

Attending Physician, Yale New Haven Medical Center and affiliated hospitals.
Attending Physician, Cornell-Scott Hill Health Center, Ansonia CT

Association. Founder and Director, American Czech and Slovak Neuroscience

Director, Yale University-Charles University
Neuroscience Exchange Program.

Current medical activities, international:

Founder and Director, Polyclinic at Národní, Prague.
Founder and Director, Private Neurological Associates, Prague.

Lecturer in Neurology, Charles University, School of Medicine, Prague.

Panel physician, Embassies of the United States and Great Britain, Czech Republic.

Director of Alumni Development, St. George's University. Visiting Professor in Physical Diagnosis and Neuroscience, St. George's University School of Medicine.

Founder and Director, Prague Selective Program, the largest summer study program for medical students of its type in the world.
(www.pragueselective.com)

Member of Supervisory Board, Hospital Na Františku, Prague.

Member of Supervisory Board, Prague Children's Foundation.

Team doctor, FC Hněvkovice.

Honorary and past medical activities:

MC and Speaker for White Coat Ceremony, University of Northumbria, UK.

External academic lecturer, University of Tasmania, Australia.

Honorary Member Board of Directors, Children's Brain Foundation, Prague.

Political activities:

Elected as an independent candidate to the Prague 1 City Council, October 2010 (first in write-in votes of all candidates), voted as Chair of the Healthcare committee. Justice of the Peace for Prague 1, Old Town Hall.

Candidate for Minister of Health, Czech Republic, spring 2010.
Chief negotiator on Expert Committee on Health Care for Věci Veřejné, negotiated, drafted and signed the Government healthcare program with other coalition partners.

Advisor to Czech premieres, ministers and numerous international medical, cultural and educational organizations.

Chairman of the Advisory Committee, Senate Commission on Czechs Living Abroad, Senate of the Czech Republic.

Charter signatory and first Director, Impulse 99 citizen's initiative, Prague.

Current cultural and other activities:

Founder and publisher Přítomnost (www.pritomnost.cz) and The New Presence (www.new-presence.com) magazines, Prague, polled as the best magazines in the Czech Republic by students of the Faculty of Journalism. Recipient, 1996 Award for Outstanding Cultural Achievement, Masaryk Academy of Arts, Czech Academy of Arts and Sciences, for same. Founder of Journalism Internship program for same.

Founder and CEO: Firma Stránský, Martin Jan Stránský Foundation Fund (for independent publications and journalism education) The Stránský Foundation (promotes civic rights and legal protection, www.nfstransky.cz).

Founder and Director, Prague Press Club www.praguepressclub.cz).

Member of the Coordinating Group for Preparations for Czech National Day, 2012.

Member, Board of Directors, Czech North American Chamber of Commerce and Culture, serving 1.5 million Czechs in North America.

Member of the International Nominating Committee for the Trebbia Award, Czech Republic.

Member of the Board, Sokol Athletic Club, Hněvkovice.

Chairman, Organ Restoration Committee, Church of St. Thomas, Prague.

Honorary and past activities

Honorary Patron, Center for the Integration of Foreigners, Prague.

Delegate of the Czech Republic, Migration Conference, European Parliament, Brussels.

Founding member, Forum for European Journals, Budapest.

Honorary Member, Association of Lidové noviny, Prague.

Founder, N11 Music Club and N11 Records, Prague. Co-author of CD SPYDER-Topspin (Hannover) 2001. Founder G8 TRANSGLOBAL and author/publisher of CD by same name (2006, SONY BMG).

New York City Coordinator for "New York Stage" project, Colours of Ostrava Festival.

Member, Board of Directors, Program Committee, Forum 2000, Prague. Moderator in 1999, 2000, 2001 conferences; Chief moderator, Student's Forum 2000, 2001 conferences, Prague.

Founding Member of General Secretariat, Committee for a Free Belorussia, Prague, 2003.

Regular appearances as the "resident neurologist" on the CTV1 show "Partnership tuning".

Analyst and columnist, with regular appearances and commentaries in TV, print and radio.

Societies: Charter Member, Lion's Club, Rokycany, Czech Republic. Multiple local, state, and national societies, USA and Czech Republic.

Full activities and list of publications available on request. Can also view full bio at www.narodni.cz .